Below this, there is a section titled 'Role: Physician (MD, DO)' and a paragraph explaining the registration process for physicians. The text states that physicians are subject to a state law in Texas that requires them to be registered with the Texas Medical Board (TMB) in order to practice medicine in the state. It also mentions that physicians must be registered with the TMB in order to be eligible to take the PMP examination. The text further states that physicians must be registered with the TMB in order to be eligible to take the PMP examination. The text concludes by stating that physicians must be registered with the TMB in order to be eligible to take the PMP examination.
